SCHOOL REPORT.

To the legal voters of the town of Auburn, the following Report is respectfully submitted:

DISTRICT No. 1.

Amount of school money, $63.44.

The summer term was taught by Lizzie M. Shirley, of Chester. The school made fair progress, and no doubt Miss Shirley will make an excellent teacher.

The winter term was taught by May A. Fitz, of Chester. This was Miss Fitz's third term in town this year; which is the best proof the public could have that she is an excellent teacher. The school made good progress, yet a marked feature was her thoroughness in teaching.

DISTRICT No. 2.

Amount of money, $83.16. There was but one term in this district, taught by Miss Lois Ella McDuffee of Auburn. She is a first-class, thorough, and practical teacher, and, as a matter of course, the school made rapid progress.

DISTRICT No. 3.

Amount of money, $230.15. There have been three terms in this district, all taught by Miss M. E. Dearborn. Miss Dearborn has been known as one of the most successful teachers in this part of the State for a number of years, and she has this year added considerably to her well-merited reputation. The school has made truly remarkable progress, and for a wonder, the parents as far as known, are all satisfied.

DISTRICT No. 4.

Amount of money, $94.93. There have been three terms in this district. The first two were taught by Miss May A. Fitz of Chester, who, although this was her first school, immediately took a high rank as a teacher. The scholars were quiet, orderly, and attended well to the preparation of their lessons. The closing examination showed that the district's money had been well expended, the scholars' and teacher's time well improved.

The Winter term was taught by Chas. H. Evans, an undergraduate of Dartmouth College; the examination showed that the lessons had been well learned and the scholars had made good advancement in most of their studies.

DISTRICT No. 5.

Amount of money, $130.92. There have been two terms in this District, both taught by Miss Abbie Dennis of Chester. By her easy, good-natured disposition, the teacher won the affections of her pupils; a little more energy might have been commendable, yet the school was harmonious and made fair progress.

DISTRICT No. 6.

Amount of money, $103.18. There were two terms in this District. The Summer term was taught by Miss Belle E. Philbrick of Candia; this was her first experience in teaching, yet, upon the first visit of your Committee she seemed perfectly at home in the school room, and the closing examination showed that she had been diligent and faithful, while the scholars' prompt answers was plain proof of the interest they had taken in their lessons.

The Winter term was taught by Mrs. M. J. Dolber, of Candia. Mrs. Dolber has had much experience as a teacher and acquired a goodly reputation, which she fully sustained. The scholars were attentive to their lessons, and made rapid advancement, with a commendable degree of thoroughness.

DISTRICT No. 7.

Amount of money, $144.32. There have been two terms in this district, each taught by Mary F. Pingree of Auburn. Miss Pingree sustained her former good reputation, and the school made remarkably good progress. The order was good, the instruction thorough;—the last term being Miss Pingree's fifth in this district. Comment as to what the inhabitants think of her is unnecessary; and they are good judges. The answers at the closing examination were prompt; the advancement more than could have been expected.

DISTRICT No. 8.

Amount of money, $116.28. There have been three terms in this district. The first two were taught by Miss Julia A. Heath of Auburn. This was her first experience as a teacher, yet she showed all those traits of character needful for her success as a teacher. Her scholars were quiet, orderly, and interested in their studies.

The Winter term was taught by Miss Mary F. Pingree, of Auburn. The scholars were interested, and made rapid progress, and the teacher has the satisfaction of having kept another good school.

REMARKS.

During the past year the prudential committees have either been remarkably fortunate, or have paid more than usual attention to the selection of teachers. The parents have been unusually interested in most districts, and where the parents were interested, as a matter of course their children had good lessons and were interested also. And in this connection I would urge parents to always remember that children not required to study at home, and only supposed to be interested in their studies during school hours, are rarely interested at all. And although they may have good natural abilities, generally go out into the world dunces; the fault not being so much that of their teachers as parents; but for the past year the parents, scholars and teachers, have nearly all been interested and the people of the town have reason to congratulate themselves with the success of their schools.

H. C. CANNEY,
S. S. Committee.
